

Good Faith Estimate Disclaimers

This Good Faith Estimate (GFE) shows the costs of items and services that are reasonably expected for your health care needs. The estimate is based on information known at the time the estimate was created.

The GFE does not include any unknown or unexpected costs that may arise during treatment. You could be charged more if complications or special circumstances occur. If this happens, federal law allows you to dispute (appeal) the bill.

If you are billed for more than this GFE, you have the right to dispute the bill.

You may contact the health care provider or facility listed to let them know the billed charges are higher than the GFE. You can ask them to update the bill to match the GFE, ask them to negotiate the bill, or ask if there is financial assistance available.

If you are billed more than $400 above the amount on this GFE, you may also start a dispute resolution process with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). If you choose to use the dispute resolution process, you must start the dispute process within 120 calendar days (about 4 months) of the date on the original bill.

There is a $25 fee to use the dispute process. If the agency reviewing your dispute agrees with you, you will have to pay the price on this GFE. If the agency disagrees with you and agrees with the health care provider or facility, you will have to pay the higher amount.

To learn more and get a form to start the process, go to www.cms.gov/nosurprises or Call the HHS Regional Office 877-696-6775.

When calculating a patient's income, Heartland Health Services considers the following sources: social security income, pension/retirement income, alimony received, child support received, unemployment compensation, disability, or supplemental income (SSI), rents and/or royalties received.

If Heartland Health Services has not already assigned you to a Payment Group, or if your household income has recently changed, you must bring the following documents with you to your appointment:

- Prior 2 months – payment stubs
- Prior 2 months – bank statements
- Income Tax Return – most recent year
- Unemployment verification (benefit statement)
- Court documents (alimony and/or child support)
- Benefit letter (SSI and Social Security Recipients, Pension/Retirement Recipients)

You may need it if you are billed a higher amount.

If you forget to bring these documents to your appointment or have any questions, call Patient Accounts at (309) 680-7634.

Once you know your Payment Group and the services you should expect to receive, you can figure out how much you should expect to pay. Here is an example:

A patient comes in for a regular medical visit. He has 4 people in his household, and Heartland Health Services counts his total income as $38,000. Using the chart above, he is in Payment Group "B."

Heartland Health Services charges for a regular medical visit are:

Service	Charge by Payment Group
Regular medical visit	$25	$30	$35	$40	$350

As the patient is in Payment Group B, his charge for the medical visit is $30.
